Dear Mr. Zail:

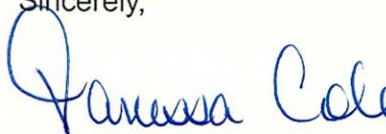

On behalf of The Ashford Club, we express our gratitude for your presentation of "Drumming Up Passion in The Workplace." The success of each of our programs lies solely with people like you who have taken time out of their busy schedule, and put the effort and energy into imparting your knowledge and experiences to our entrepreneurial audience throughout Metro Atlanta.

I am not only pleased, I'm impressed with the level of service you have so generously extended to the audience. This presentation was priceless! So many other speaking programs give you theory and concepts and loose guidelines. You set down on paper a step by step 'process' that anyone can follow.

The feedback we have received from our members and guests has been excellent; with more than a few saying they felt this was our best seminar ever. Your support of The Ashford Club's mission to bring in educated speakers, makes it that much easier for us to continue to provide the high-quality programming that we do.

I want to thank you again for the important contributions you have made to the success of many entrepreneurs. We look forward to having you educate our business people at The Ashford Club again.

Sincerely,

Vanessa Cole
